

SAVING THE WORLD, ONE ANIMAL AT A TIME

A PRESENTATION BY

LAURELEE BLANCHARD

In her talk Laurelee Blanchard will describe the joys and challenges of running Leilani Farm Sanctuary and explain how the sanctuary is succeeding in rescuing animals and providing humane education to the community. She will also explain how our food choices affect human health, animals, and the environment.

The audience will enjoy a PowerPoint slide show featuring beautiful and compelling photographs of the sanctuary, and heartwarming stories about the animals whose lives were saved and who now are living in a safe, idyllic environment.

THUR., NOV. 15, 7 P.M.
KAUNOA SENIOR CENTER
401 ALAKAPA PL., PAIA

Talks are structured for adult-level audiences. We are not able to provide a playroom for children at this time.

Vegetarian Society of Hawaii

Join Us!

For more info: 572-8371 or steveblake@hawaiiintel.net

FREE Admission &
Refreshments

Laurelee Blanchard is Founder and President of Leilani Farm Sanctuary, home to 160 animals rescued from neglect, abuse, and slaughter. She served as Maui Director of VSH for ten years. She has also worked as National Communications Director for Farm Animal Rights Movement (FARM) and as campaign consultant to Farm Sanctuary, the nation's largest farm animal protection organization. In 2012 Laurelee was presented with the Vegan of the Year — North America commendation for her outstanding animal activist work.